Case # 2:11-cv-00926-GMN-RJJ
Assigned to: Judge Gloria M Navarro

Dear Judge Navarro,

I am writing this letter after a brief communication with your offices this morning.

Regarding above case matter it is at this time I would like to notify the court that we haven't been able to successfully acquire new council as per last court dated July 7, 2011 when previous council withdrew.

The hardship is two fold to obtain new council:

- a) Financially; as retainers have varied from $10,000 to $25,000 USD per law firm
- b) Plaintiffs numerous state filings; we are being forced by same law firm for plaintiffs to obtain council in other states to dispute similar claims (CA case # 11CV0811H NLS and NY case # 11 civ.3101(PKC)) The NY state case in May 26 was denied the injunction and temporarily dismissed by Plaintiffs. We didn't obtain any representation. The CA we were granted an extension by SchiffHardin council Alexander Catalona to July 22 to answer to that case which was filed in April 18, 2011.

I have met with Plaintiffs other law firm representative Richard Rossi, Law firm out of Florida where we have been trying to make amicable terms in hopes to resolve matters and save Megola shareholders and company incurred expenses. The issue at hand is the TM to which we only own the Hartindo Anti fire trademark whereas an entire other corporate identity in NJ owns the TM Hartindo AF21. We have offered the TM for the expenses we have incurred to obtain it and Mr Rossi is trying to help negotiations however the legal cases come swiftly not giving much time to resolve amicably.

We are a NV corp. however our offices are located in Canada and we are a developmental company thus funds are sporadic at best and these groups are well aware of our financial hardships as they somewhat attributed to them.

Megola requests the court grant us further extension to retain council as we expect some funds to be available by August 15, 2011.
